

Biblical Counseling Institute

Mrs. Eileen Scipione
Counselor

Eileen Scipione was born in 1948 to believing parents and was “born again” by God's Holy Spirit in 1970. Married to Dr. George C. Scipione, they have five children and two grandchildren.

Experience:

Special Education Teacher, Montgomery Co., 1970-1972
Supervised homeschooling network, 1984
Director of Center for Unplanned Pregnancy, 1985-1994
Biblical Counselor with IBCD and BCI, 1998-present

Education:

BS, Kutztown University, 1970 (Special Education and Elementary Education)
Graduate work for Visually and Multiply Handicapped, University of Pittsburgh, 1971
NANC certified, 2004
IBCD certified, 2005
MTS, Reformed Presbyterian Theological Seminary, (anticipated completion 2018)

Publications:

Women Helping Women (two chapters)
The Afternoon of Life (one chapter)

Lecture Topics:

Forgiveness is a Promise: being willing, eager, and ready to forgive without actually making the promise never to bring up an offense to God, others, or yourself

Overcoming Fear, Worry, and Anxiety: how to replace “what if” thinking with God’s promises and warnings

A Gentle and Quiet Spirit: what it is and what it is not

Inner Man/Outer Man: how to balance bodily issues with spiritual issues

From Duty to Delight: sexual intimacy issues for married and soon to be married women

Ministering to Victims of Sexual Abuse

Perfectionism or Perfect in Christ

Crisis Pregnancy Counseling and Post Abortion Counseling

When Your Parents Disappoint You/When Your Children Disappoint You

Hypersexualization of Children and Teens

Device Addiction: "Help: My child has been taken over by a machine!"